

Rodney Atkins, In A Heartbeat

I feel your heart pounding against mine
Oh, I taste your lips so sweet and so fine
And darling you ask me if this will go on
After tonight and beyond the dawn

In a heartbeat I'll stay with you
Give you my soul and always be true
I surrender my love for you to keep
I feel forever in a heartbeat

Your eyes are like diamonds they outshine the stars
I've wished on for so long and now here you are
As we dance in the moonlight like a candle's slow flame
I would relive this moment over and over again

In a heartbeat I'll stay with you
Give you my soul and always be true
I surrender my love for you to keep
I feel forever in a heartbeat

I feel forever in a heartbeat
Oh, I feel forever in a heartbeat
