

Rodney Crowell, Ashes By Now

Cover Of Love

Michael Damian

Susie sits all alone

She waits by the telephone

Joey's out having fun

Waits to call when she's not at home

She gets scared and then takes off

And runs from the cover of love

He knows that he'll find her there

And knows what she'd thinking of

I know the broken hearted

When I look in their eyes I see

Is it the world that's changing

And turning away from me

Why do we run from the cover of love

Why do we run from the cover of love

You and I have been through this

A million times or more

Don't we know it's the same routine

So what are we fighting for

We all go and waste our time

But we are all the same

All we do is just to tun away

And play the same old game

You know the broken hearted

When you look in my eyes you see

Is it my life that's changing

And getting away from me

Why do we run from the cover of love

Why do we run from the cover of love

The changing heart knows no bound

Time may stand still

Emotions keep turning the fire burns on and on

You know the broken hearted

When you look in my eyes you'll see

Is it my life that's changing

And getting away from me

Why do we run from the cover of love

Why do we run from the cover of love
