

Roger Glover, Behind The Smile

Behind the smile is great and nice,
Beware of what is in his eyes.
Looks like fun but he's after you,
It's not so funny what that smile can do...

Behind the smile there lies a face,
Filled with cunning but is full of grace.
Comes on friendly but is deadly too,
Beware for he'll take care of you...

An innocent soul well it hurts
I'm so naive, that's all you ever see

Behind the smile you cannot see
Lies another fool in misery
Don't be fooled by that friendly grin
The jaws of death are going to draw you in...
