

Roger Hodgson, Love Is A Thousand Times

Love, love is a thousand times
Stronger than me, stronger than you
Well if you want to be a soldier
o marching off to war
You think you're going to be a hero
But we've heard it all before, boy

Love, love is a thousand times
Dearer than me, dearer than you
Well if you want to be a leader,
Then go and lead the way
You're never going to give us freedom
-no matter what you say, boy
-I said it'd better come soon...
La-La-La

'Cause love-love is the way
If only we all could hear,
It just seems so clear
I just can't believe
-watching the world what am I seeing?
But I know there's a way
-oh there must be a way
Oh there must come day come a time when I can be free...

'Cause I want to hear her voice
Softer than me, softer than you
Whatever will it take me
To bring her smile my way
'Cause everytime I try to please her,
She loves to go in hiding
-I said she'd better come soon...
