

Roger Miller, Feel Of Me

Look at you you're cryin' lonesome plain to see
But don't feel bad If you think you feel lonesome feel of me
I got lots of heartaches and all that misery
So don't feel bad If you think you feel lonesome feel of me
Touch and feel the tremble in my hand
Look at my eyes look how they cry then I think you'll understand
Look at you you're cryin' lonesome plain to see
But don't feel bad if you think you feel lonesome feel of me
