

Roger Miller, I Catch Myself Crying

It doesn't matter one way or another I say but I'm lying I catch myself crying
There are fools I was one but it's over and done
And I'm trying but I catch myself crying
I catch myself wondering if you'll find somebody new
I catch myself wondering if you're wondering if I'll find somebody too
It doesn't matter one way or another I say but I'm lying I catch myself crying
I catch myself wondering...
