

Roger Miller, If You Want Me To

Thunder roll and lighting flashing right through the middle of it I'll go dashing
Goes to show how far I'll go for you if you want me to

Well hurricane winds blow grief and sorrow but I'd run through one tomorrow
Goes to show how far I'll go for you if you want me to
Well there's no limit to would I go through for you
Anything you ask of me I'm a makin' my destiny
Well thunder roll and lighting flashing...

[ac.guitar]

Thunder roll and lighting flashing...

Well hurricane winds blow grief and sorrow...

Well thunder roll and lighting flashing...

Goes to show how far I'll go for you if you want me to
