

Roger Miret And The Disasters, Just Us

Spring of '81 - Summer '82

Streets were full of punks, where the fuck was you?

Fall of '83 - Winter '84

Infiltrated us, tried to take it all

Where were you when I had no bed?

Where were you when I had no food?

Why did you come for more? I'm asking you!

Wasn't there enough rope, didn't I give enough to you

Where were you when I was cold?

Were you there when I took my fall?

Just Us! The gang stood strong

Just Us! While you were gone

Should have never believed in you and seen you through

You never were the type to fight for our truce

Spring of '81 - Summer '82 - Fall of '83 - Winter '84

The gang stood strong, WE STOOD ON OUR OWN!!!
