

Roger Miret And The Disasters, Riot, Riot, Riot

Riot! Riot! Riot! C'mon let's go (x3)

Just today like any other day
Turned on the news, what's that someone's got to say?
Fuck their peace, fuck what they have to say
Who's to accuse for all this fucking mess?

Well I'm still real sick, still got no remedy
My life's got no authority can't see straight no visibility

Every cheating wolf makes a bargain with the world
Every 2 bit thief robs the blind and the poor
Well I believe in innocent till proven guilty
He who fucks society dies in laughter silently
