

Roger Tylor, Surrender

Same cycle happen every day
Same characters same play
My game plan's become clear
Gotta find a way out of here
There ain't no place to run
No welcome mat in my home
No love here, no life
He want a punchbag, not a wife
You can't hurt me now
You can't hurt me now
You can't hurt me now, I'm gone from you
You can't hurt me now
You can't hurt me now
You can't reach me where I've gone to
I surrender
I surrender
No hope left, just pain
Whisky on his breath, violence in his brain
Scared kids, with scarred minds
Surrender reason, love is blind
Surrender life, surrender love
Surrender belief in God above
Surrender hope, bow down to fear
Surrender life, There ain't much here
You can't hurt me now
You can't hurt me now
You can't hurt me now, I'm gone from you
You can't hurt me now
You can't hurt me now
You can't reach me where I'm going to
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
You can't reach me, you can't reach me
You can't reach me, you can't reach me
I surrender
You can't hurt me, you can't hurt me
I surrender
I surrender
I surrender
