

Rolf Harris, Wool-O

Here's a question.

Go ahead and ask it.

What saved Moses in his little basket,
When the murky water mighta sunk it?
God's will and a little wooly blanket.

What? Yes! Made of

Wool-o, wool-o, woolly woolly wool-o,
White and light and bright and beautiful-o.
Pure wool, so dependable-o, whoo,
From the lamb, from the ram, and from the ewe-hoo-hoo

What made Meshak and Abednigo-ho,
When the fiery flames were all a-glow-ho,
Sit there in that furnace brave and daring?
Faith in God and the shirts that they were wearing.

What? Yes! Made of

Wool-o, wool-o, woolly woolly wool-o,
White and light and bright and beautiful-o.
Pure wool, so dependable-o, whoo,
From the lamb, from the ram, and from the ewe-hoo-hoo

Good book says and we believe it's so-ho
Joshua fought the fight of Jericho-ho.
Wall so high that nobody could jump it,
Josh brought it down with his little silver trumpet.

What? Yes!

(spoken out of tempo)

What did you think it would be made of?

Wool-o, wool-o, woolly woolly wool-o,
White and light and bright and beautiful-o.
Pure wool, so dependable-o, whoo,
From the lamb, from the ram, and from the ewe-hoo-hoo

If you want to put a bit of style on,
Don't go buying polythene or nylon.
Patent leather's really rather drastic,
Might as well get imitation plastic
What? No! Stick to

Wool-o, wool-o, woolly woolly wool-o,
White and light and bright and beautiful-o.
Pure wool, so dependable-o, whoo,
From the lamb, from the ram, and from the ewe-hoo-hoo
