Rolling Stones, I Get A Kick Out Of You

My story is much too sad to be told, But practically everything leaves me totally cold. The only exception I know is the case, When I'm out on a quiet spree fightly vainly the old ennui, And I suddenly turn and see your fabulous face!

I get no kick from champagne, mere alcohol doesn't thrill me at all, So tell me why should it be true, that I get a kick out of you? Some get a kick from cocaine,

I'm sure that if I took even one sniff
That would bore me terrifically, too,
yet I get a kick out of you.
I get a kick every time I see you're standing there before me.
I get a kick though it's clear to me,
you obviously don't adore me.
I get no kick in a plane,
flying too high with some gal in the sky
Is my idea of nothing to do,
yet I get a kick out of you!
