

Ronnie Milsap, Somebody Like You

Your goodbye, I know will fade away in time
But girl, our love will last forever
Ask me why, that I do all the tears are dry
I still wish we were still together.
Love lives on even after you were gone
So I'm looking for somebody like you.

But someone who'll never leave
I'm looking for a love that is real
And not just a memory inside of me
Token lies, I try to say to someone new
But she knows I'm just pretending.

In my eyes, she sees the images of you
Like a story with no ending
Love lives on..even after you are gone
So I'm looking for somebody like you.

But someone who'll never leave
I'm looking for a love that is real
And not just a memory that will always be inside of me
Oh, I'm looking for somebody like you.

But someone who'll never leave
I'm looking for a love that is real
And not just a memory inside of me
All I really need is somebody like you.

Somebody like you...
