

Room 94, Ignorance Is Bliss

I guess this is how it feels
I guess this is how it's meant to be
I'll try my hardest not to think about you
I'll try my hardest not to watch you leave

I'm falling deeper everyday
I'm getting lost and I can't find my way
I'm missing something I don't know
It doesn't feel right that I can't let go

I don't wanna know what you've been doing
I don't wanna know if this is ruined
I don't wanna know if you've been lying
I just wanna know that you've been trying

Oh whoaaaaaooo

Those 3 words are all I need
Let me prove to you that I still bleed
I know there's something underneath your skin
Just open up come on and let me in

I don't wanna know if you've been lying
I just wanna know that you've been trying

Oh whoaaaaaooo

I guess I'll act like I'm okay
Just promise me you used to feel the same

I don't wanna know what you've been doing
I don't wanna know if this is ruined
I don't wanna know if you've been lying
I just wanna know that you've been trying

I don't wanna know what you've been doing
I don't wanna know if this is ruined
I don't wanna know if you've been lying
I just wanna know that you've been trying

Is this my only way out?

I don't wanna know if you've been lying
I don't wanna know if it's not real
