

Rory Gallagher, Wheels Within Wheels

If you keep on walkin',
You'll walk right outta sight.
And if you keep your eyes closed,
You will not see the light.

Just give me a chance,
To put it right.

If you keep your heart closed,
You'll live out in the cold.
And you'll go on searchin',
It's such a lonesome road.

Let me be the one,
You wanna hold.

Yea

Wheels within wheels,
Confused what you feel a little bit.
Rules within rules,
Won't hide the hurt I have felt.

Well, I could keep on tryin',
Looks like its all been in vain.
For somethin's truly got you,
Its carryin' you away.
Don't leave me standing,
In this empty space.
