

Rosanne Cash, Never Gonna Hurt

(Rosanne Cash)

You give me no reason to cry but I do
You tell me you don't tell me lies, is that true?
I can't stand your strange emotion
I don't like your meek devotion
Just send my old heart in motion
So you can't hurt me anymore
It ain't ever gonna hurt anymore

You tell me I got out of line and I did
You think I'll never survive but I'll live
Let's break up that bound together
I'll use all my drastic measures
And leave while I still feel clever
So you can't hurt me anymore
It ain't ever gonna hurt anymore

Well I think you've lost your youth
And you think I play too loose
But I'll tell you what the truth is
You can't hurt me anymore
So let go of old emotions
Get someone's new devotion
You think I'm only jokin'
But you can't hurt me anymore
It ain't never gonna hurt anymore
