

Rosi Golan, C

I felt it in my heart, that it was time, a change of scenery
To get a little lost, to feel alive, and reach beyond me
I walked into the first caf in France Im so clich.
When I saw him I felt the room divide into pieces
Oh the lights danced around us just like stars in the sky
One night in Paris with a man I barely knew, Im lost in a moment
Cest La vie, Cest La chance, Cest Lamour
It happened all too fast, the perfect night, for perfect strangers
The way he wrapped the curls of his mustache around his fingers
And like a little girl whos never been to Disneyland
When I saw him I felt the room divide into pieces
Oh the lights danced around us just like stars in the sky
One night in Paris with a man I barely knew, Im lost in a moment
Cest La vie, Cest La chance, Cest Lamour
And when I think I about him, I wish I had it all, to do again because.
I Wanna be just like Mary so let them eat their cake
When I saw him I felt the room divide into pieces
Oh the lights danced around us just like stars in the sky
One night in Paris with a man I barely knew, Im lost in a moment
Cest La vie, Cest La chance, Cest Lamour
