

Rosi Golan, Shine

This life is light, Its light burns bright
So well take it day by day and let it be
And everyone will see how good it feels
Oh theyll see the world for all that it could be Let the sunlight in, I wanna feel it from within
You spin me around and make me feel like I could Shine, shine.
So what do you say if the sky turned grey?
With a kiss youd send the rainclouds on theyre way
This life is light, its light burns bright
Every moment is a moment you could say
