

Rosie, Someone You Once Had

Were you always so good at pushing people away?
Running from everyone 'til they give up the chase
Is it just in your bones to get a little too close And shut off your emotions, Were you always so good at making mistakes?

I was ready to give it all to you
When you left me, said you come home soon

But If you have to lose me to want me bad give up on us to see what we have You should know better I would never Let you love me after that

move on to find that you want me there
If you have to go then you should know when you come back I'll just be someone you once had thought there wasn't a thing that could tear us apart

I would never expect it to be cuz of your heart
After all of these years, it just ended in tears Cuz you keep a promise
thought there wasn't a thing that could tear us apart

give up on us to see what we have
You should know better I would never Let you love me after that
If you have to go then you should know when you come back
I'll just be someone you once had

I was ready to give it all to you
When you left me, said you'd come home soon

But If you have to lose me to want me bad
give up on us to see what we have
You should know better I would never

move on to find that you want me there
If you have to go then you should know when you come back I'll just be someone you once had someone you once you had
