

Rotten Bark, Beep Song

i'm sitting here and wondering why our love just disappeared the feelings i' ve hold inside my heart seams like wasn't t real so i closed my chest to start things over again maybe the worst things could be right and it' s much more preasure when you know that it's not fine and than i cried (it's alright)

so please believe me that you were one and only that i dreamed about except the girls that i just met i know you feel so sad
i just don' t give a..

you said that you've never been so tired and our friendship felt so wrong i just can't forget our past when we were young and insecured but that was 3 fuckin' years ago and now it' s not our time to fresh it out and forget about those simple things that made you cry, it's not alright

i just don' t give a..

you said you were never been so tired whatever
and out friendship is so wrong now
forget it
