

Roxette, Dream on

Dream On

Dream on
Yesterday is gone
And it's clear
I'll never get out of here
No dice
Got something in my eyes
It might be a tear

She never shoots her gun
She only keeps it just for fun
I wanna call her bluff
But I never get close enough
Though I love to hear her heartbeat

Dream on?

Eighteen times today
I've been wishin' my day away
And it's hard to say
I'm windin' up OK
But I pray I'll hear her heartbeat
Dream on?

In my ear I hear the heartbeat
In my ear I hear the heartbeat
