

Roy Drusky, I Can't Go On Loving You

I thought I could but I can't go on loving you
It hurts too much knowing you stopped loving me
Don't ask me who's to blame or what I know it's true
I only know I can't go on loving you
Slowly but surely your love became a mem'ry
And heaven knows I can't live on memories
Don't ask me where I'm going or just what I'll do I only know I can't go on loving you Slowly but surely...
I only know I can't go on loving you
