Roy Drusky, Walk On By

If I see you tomorrow on some street in town pardon me if I don't say hello I belong to another and it wouldn't look so good To know someone I'm not supposed to know

Just walk on by wait on the corner I love you but we're strangers when we meet Just walk on by (wait on the corner) I love you but we're strangers when we meet [organ]

In a dimly lit corner in a place outside of town tonight we'll try to say goodbye again But I know it's not over I'll call tomorrow night I can't let you go so why pretend Just walk on by...
