

Roy Orbison, After All

You betrayed me after all
Built me up to let me fall
I still love you after all
Mmm, after all

After all is said and done
All the teardrops, all the fun
Guess you're still the only one
After all

After all, i want you
And i need you so
After all, all we've been through
There you go, oh-oh-oh, i...

I leave you now with some regret
And though i can't forget
I still bless the day we met
After all

After all, i want you
And i need you so
After all, all we've been through
There you go, oh-oh-oh, so...

So goodbye, and here's to you
Even though you made me blue
I still wish the best for you
After all
