

Roy Orbison, Blues In My Mind

(Fred Rose)

I ought to hate you for these blues in my mind
What makes me love you, am I losing my mind?
I wonder where I'm gonna wind up
I just can't make my crazy mind up

Too many kisses brought me too many tears
Tears that I'll carry with me all through the years
I'm just the broken hearted kind
Worrying blues in my mind

I'm going crazy with these blues in my mind
How can you just keep on confusing my mind?
You've got a jealous air about you
Maybe I'm better off without you

Still I can't make my heart believe that it's true
Trouble with me is having trouble with you
I'm just the broken hearted kind
Worrying blues in my mind
Worrying blues in my mind
