Goodnight
Roy Orbison

My lovely woman child
I found you out running wild with someone new
You've been untrue
And everybody knows we're through
But I can't say good-bye to you
No matter what you do
My heart won't let you go
Although I know you go with someone new
I think of you
I think of how you kiss
Your tenderness, with all of this
I miss the way you say goodnight
Bittersweet your kisses
When my heart still misses
The way that things used to be
But I know you're strong for other arms you long for
And you can never come back to me
Not just for yesterday
Tonight or tomorrow
Ah, but forever, I'll hear you say goodnight
Goodnight, goodnight turned out to be a lie
And I can't help it if I cry
Goodnight, my love, sleep tight, my love, goodnight
