

Roy Orbison, Precious

You are not just another sweet human
You're precious, precious to me
you are not just my love for the moment
You're precious, precious to me

Are you some kind of angel
Who lost your way to a star?
Wonder why, why me?

Don't you even see how wonderful you are?

You are not just someone I can talk with
You're precious, precious to me
You are not just someone i can talk with
You're precious, precious to me
