Roy Orbison, Precious

You are not just another sweet human You're precious, precious to me you are not just my love for the moment You're precious, precious to me

Are you some kind of angel Who lost your way to a star? Wonder why, why me?

Don't you even see how wonderful you are?

You are not just someone I can talk with You're precious, precious to me You are not just someone i can talk with You're precious, precious to me
