

Roy Orbison, Problem Child (Alt Version)

(Roy Orbison)

ROY ORBISON (Sun, 1957)

Well my heartbeat is running wild
Because of you my problem child
Oh-oh baby, don't be running wild
Well cool off baby, don't be a problem child
Well don't you see this shakin' spree
Is bound to be the death of me
Oh baby, don't be running wild
Well cool off baby, don't be a problem child
Well my heartbeat is runnin' wild
Because of you my problem child
Oh baby, don't be running wild
Control yourself, don't be a problem child
Well don't you see this shakin' spree
Is bound to be the death of me
Oh baby, don't be running wild
Well cool off baby, don't be a problem child
Well then I'm gone, that's all she wrote
You'll sing this same song note for note
Oh baby, don't be running wild
Control yourself, you're a problem child
Ooh, Problem child
Yeah, Problem child
Well, Problem child
Yeah, Problem child
Oh baby, you're a problem child
Slow down girl, down
Slow down girl, down
down girl, down
Slow down girl, down.....
