

Roy Orbison, Remember When

You think she's an angel
When she's close to you
But you better watch her, buddy
She'll break your heart in two

Yeah, you'll wake up one day, and then
You'll look back and say "my friend
Yeah, i-i-i-i remember when"

I remember those stars in my eyes
I remember she had me hypnotized
I thought our love would never end
But oh, what lies, and i remember when

I thought she was mine
I thought she was fine
I knew she was cool
But she played me for a fool

So don't be swayed by that pretty face

Very soon you're gonna be replaced
Yeah, i-i-i-i remember when

I remember when her lips were warm
I remember when she was in my arms
I remember her Devil's charm
The living end - oh, i remember when

So go on, believe
That she won't leave
Yeah, be smart and let her
Let her break your heart

Well mark my words, mark my words
You can believe everything you've heard
Cos i-i-i-i remember when
Yeah i-i-i-i remember when
Yeah i-i-i-i remember when
