

Royal Blood, Shiner In The Dark

When I'm made of stone
Said it's my delusions
Got golden bones, bulletproof soul
Don't mind the bruises

Got feeling wounds and battle scars
The speed of light, will set us off
Don't lie, can't shake the ghost
The ones who missed, will hurt the most

Shadows on the back seat, tank the glass
Trapped through memories, helping me fast
I got bruises
South town battery, black and blue
Shiner in the dark, and my heart that the master (Bruises)
Don't mind the bruises

Don't stitch me up (Touch me up)
Don't dab me down (Don't dab me down)
I'll lead them off
I'll fight for love
Turn back around

Through thick and thin, with diamond skin
It's alright, I'll shine 'em in Helping hands walk out the door
Save the night, face it all

Shadows on the back seat, tank the glass
Trapped through memories, helping me fast
I got bruises
South town battery, black and blue
Shiner in the dark, and my heart that the master (Bruises)

Don't mind the bruises
Don't mind the bruises

Shadows on the back seat, tank the glass
Trapped through memories, helping me fast
I got bruises
South town battery, black and blue
Shiner in the dark, and my heart that the master (Bruises)
Don't mind the bruises
