

Royal Crown Revue, Hey Pachuco! (Reprise)

summer '43, the mans gunning for me blue and white mean war tonight they say damn my pride and... all the cats from down the east side so now theres no place to hide hey marie, you better grab my jack and zip a gun for me cuz all face no shame tonights the night that i die for our name when we hit downtown, we start to throw down we end up doin' time soon as they met us, they're out to get us so i'll stick with that gang of mine
