

Royal Hunt, Sea of Time

In the ocean of dreams things are changing but staying the same Nothing is like it seems So unreal that it drives me insane in the heat of seven suns Surrender to the power of time. End of the line - ready or not but you'll always remember

Everyday in your life you've lonely Every tear in your eye is only little step on the way to face your fear - I'm thinking about you Every bridge that you'll burn behind you Every page that you'll turn'll remind you what everyday is another lonely tear falling in the sea of time

Gentle voice from above makes you carry your cross through the day Speaking wisdom and love to confuse you - then fading away into the light of 7th sun he'll run Don't be afraid, never surrender Ages will pass but we'll always remember
