

Royal Republic, Wow! Wow! Wow!

Life is a highway, you're stuck in a rut
You feel like a loser, you're down on your luck
You crashed your Ferrari, you can't catch a break
And your Dolce Gabbana turned out to be fake

Things will get better
I'm gonna bet
If you can remember to never forget

That rocket up in the sky
The cream on strawberry pie
You lookin' into my eye
Wow! Wow! Wow!
The stars that light up the night
The way you do me just right
Like when I'm holding you tight
Wow! Wow! Wow!

The world is a jungle so learn how to swing
Pick up the pieces and get back in the ring
Cause life is a party and if you go to bed
You'll be asleep while your friend's getting head

Things will get better
I'm gonna bet
If you can remember to never forget

That rocket up in the sky
The cream on strawberry pie
You lookin' into my eye
Wow! Wow! Wow!
The stars that light up the night
The way you do me just right
Like when I'm holding you tight
Wow! Wow! Wow!

Like swimming in the sunshine
When all the planets align
And you're the next one in line
Wow! Wow! Wow!
A flight without a delay
Gonna chase your troubles away
And it's a beautiful day
Wow! Wow! Wow!

Everything went wrong
When you came on way to strong
You're all out of success
And your hair is in a mess
Now that you hit the stop
The only way is up
When you're done singing the blues
You got nothing to lose

That rocket up in the sky
The cream on strawberry pie
You lookin' into my eye
Wow! Wow! Wow!
The stars that light up the night
The way you do me just right
Like when I'm holding you tight
Wow! Wow! Wow!

Like swimming in the sunshine

When all the planets align
And you're the next one in line
Wow! Wow! Wow!
A flight without a delay
Gonna chase your troubles away
And it's a beautiful day

It's Wow! Wow! Wow!
