featuring Juan

Royce Da 5'9"

(Chorus)

I'm blow, bout to do it after I make
One of ya favorite rappers buckle, basically outdo em like smack
Bout to do it as soon as your mouth
Single you out, the trigger fingers it out like crack
Bout to slip through it like a fiend
Bout to pick through the pictures of the game, like a dream
Like ye, from from away, from a fan
When you hear it then you know you the man you dope

(Royce Da 5'9")

They say I rhyme like I'm from Columbia
Cause I shine like weed lights, thats why I'm signed to Columbia
With three mic's at a time, I come from the underground
Bout a hundred a pound thats the way that I grind
Hoes know the most potent blow
On both coasts is approachin yo nose
Left em, more open, right steppers turn left
Or burn ya septum, before mic checks em
They sale, it takes me to teach yall
On my weight scale, we basically sea-saw
Every word that you heard is the murderers version
Servin you herbs when you emergin with birds
I got you what want
Product that I come with I got a mic that light up like a blunt
If you seen it then you know that the flow
Is the meanest when I'm screamin that im dope I mean it cause im like blow!

(Chorus)

I'm blow, bout to do it after I make
One of ya favorite rappers buckle, basically outdo em like smack

To my competitor instead of the pipe
