

Royce Da 59, I Promise

&lt;font size=1&quot;&gt;&lt;font&gt;

(Royce Da 5'9&quot;)

Yeah, yeah yeah

There's a void that needs to be filled inside this marketplace

You could die in my parkin space

My mom want me to blow up and house them

My father want me to bring product out without Slim

And prove them wrong - they paid my bills

I'm on your heels, I'm for real, my shoes is long

To feed my son - I will leave you

leakin in the street, I will heat you to kingdom come

Uhh, the king will come

Wait 'til you gone in place of a angel appear to take you home

The beard on the face is gone

These bullets is straight razors, blazin you, case in point

Amaze the rap game, make 'em point

Walk inside of the house of the illest and case the joint

And take whatever I want, out of it

Now that I'm wise, my future rides on it, it's time for triumph

(Chorus: Royce Da 5'9&quot; (Ingrid Smalls))

I promise - if you just let me in the game (Prayyyy)

If you should bless me enough to let me reign, I will contain you (Prayyyy)

I promise - I will support my family, slash you (Prayyyy)

I promise - I will pray every day, I will ask you

I promise - if you just let me in the game (Prayyyy)

If you should bless me enough to let me reign, I will contain you (Prayyyy)

I promise - I will stop the killin, I will change (Prayyyy)

I promise - I will put in this flow, what you put in my soul

(Royce Da 5'9&quot;)

The whole misconception with me

The only thing people think that I'm arrogant when they don't know me

That's what it was

If I wasn't a real nigga the shit would not bother me but it does

The shit is not fair

Just picture yourself lookin in the mirror tryna change what is not there

When niggaz st
