

Royksopp, Go Away

I dont want nothin from you
I dont wanna know you
I had time to find out
What youre all about
Every time I turn around
Your face is in the paper
Your voice is on the air
On all the stations later
Yes you are everywhere
With such ubiquity
It dont mean shit to me
Just wanna make it clear
Just go away
Dont wanna see your face
Just go away
Dont wanna hear your name
Just go away
Dont wanna see your face
Just go away
Im not in it anyway
Your face cant surround me
You just dont astound me
Im not interested
With the time youve invested
As I turn around
Your face is in the paper
Your voice is on the air
On all the stations later
With such ubiquity
It dont mean shit to me
Just wanna make it clear
Just go away
Dont wanna see your face
Just go away
Dont wanna hear your name
Just go away
Dont wanna see your face
Just go away
Im not in it anyway
Just go away
Dont wanna see your face
Just go away
Dont wanna hear your name
Just go away
Dont wanna see your face
Just go away
Im not in it anyway
Youre comin on too strong
The way you carry on
Just leave a little peace
This madness must now cease
I was here
I was fine
I was doin alright
Now you in my head
The feeling inside is dead
I was safe
Blissful peace
Staying in a marvel world
Now thats history
See what youre doin to me
Just go away
Just go away

Dont wanna hear your name
Just go away
Just go away
Just go
A-way
A-way
A-way
A-way
A-way
A-way
