

Rubies, Stand In A Line

You could wake up in my design
You could wake up in my design
You could wake up with my desire
Transport and then expire

I can hear the quiet mountain
Only fear your jagged vision
Come and tear the night apart

Did you notice your mind on the outside?
Did you notice your mind is on the outside?
Cut it up with a sharpened star
Cut it up with a sharpened star
Use my eyes
Won't you use this right eye
To see the inside

If you stand in a line you will never fit
Until you take the time to draw a circle around it
If you stand in a line
If you stand in a line

I can't, I can't, I can't explain
What I know
I can't, I can't, I can't explain
What I don't know

You could wake up in my design
You could wake up with my desire
Did you notice your mind's on fire?
Did you notice your mind's on fire?

If you stand in a line you will never fit
Until you take the time to draw a circle around it
If you stand in a line
If you stand in a line

I can't, I can't, I can't explain
What I know
I can't, I can't, I can't explain
What I don't know

You can't tell
You don't know
You can't see you're falling down

I can't, I can't, I can't explain
What I know
I can't, I can't, I can't explain
What I don't know

If you stand in a line you will never fit
Until you take the time to draw a circle around it
If you stand in a line
If you stand in a line

I know you're kind to me sometimes
I cannot resist you

I can't, I can't, I can't explain
What I know
I can't, I can't, I can't explain
What I don't know
