

Rubyhorse, Teenage Distraction

Teenage distraction
Seventies collection
Here comes the main attraction
With heavy competition
From the beautiful religion
Check out his clear complexion
'Cause you say I won't change a thing
But I know better
And you never know what love will bring
Don't you remember?
When it was alright
Nothing could be done
And nothing in our hearts could bring us down
Girlish superstition
Limited edition
Reasons enough to kill you
So pearly white
So super slim
So hard to find the right way in
'Cause you say I won't change a thing
But I know better
And you never know what love will bring
Don't you remember?
When it was alright
Nothing could be done
And nothing in our hearts could bring us down
How far
How far have you come?
You say I won't change a thing
But I know better
And you never know what love will bring
Don't you remember?
When it was alright
Nothing could be done
And nothing in our hearts could bring us down
