

Rude Buddha, Runaway

I'm running away just for a moment
If I stay here I'll go insane I cant stop looking at your pictures they make Sunday morning feel like Monday but without you I'm broken when I was happy I could make you smile but I'm not as happy as I used to be I cannot stand the way I'm feeling the radio sucks where's my hero's today

Wahoo-ooo, I cannot resist your smile but I'm leaving for a while (repeat) without you I'm broken and you left me

(chorus)

I'm waiting for you now (repeat)

You push me out just to pull me back in Nobody's going to tell me how to live and I hear your talking shit when your with your friends nobody's gonna tell you
You push me out just to pull me back in nobody's gonna tell me how to live I just want to hear you Say you want me, Say you need me tell me its in my head, its in my head
Say you want me, Say you need me tell me its in my head and that I fine

(chorus)

I'm waiting, but do you even care
