

Rudimental, Dancing is Healing (feat. Charlotte P

Don't mind, don't mind if you cry on my shoulder
Remember, remember the things that I told ya

Darlin don't you cry you gon be alright,
Leave it leave it all behind, take it take it off your mind

I know you've had to fight, but things are looking brighter
Let it go tonight I know you need it

Dancing is healing, love is the answer
Dancing is healing, love is the answer
Yeah yeah yeah

When ya need space when ya need need time
When it's gets heavy on your mind
(When ya lose faith put ya hand in mine
When it gets heavy

Dancing is healing, love is the answer
Dancing is healing, love is the answer
Dancing is healing, love is the answer
Yeah yeah,

When it's gets heavy on your mind
(...
When it gets heavy

Dancing is healing, love is the answer
