(Rock and Roll beast is dead, ?but your ungle must be fades?)

Come on everybody join your hands
Come in everybrain clap new bands
Come in everybody clap your hands
Come on everybrain join new bands

We all play the same old chords
We all tread the same old boards

Come on everybody join your hands
Come in everybrain clap new bands
Come in everybody clap your hands
Come on everybrain join new bands
