

Ruff Michael, Any Less Than This

I have no soul, 'til I look in your eyes
There is no wisdom in my word without your listening smile
My only sense of time begins when we're apart
My song of love follows the rhythm of your heart
CHORUS: I could die in your arms when you hold me
Born again in your kiss
Everyone knows seasons will change
But I'll never love you any less than this
Love will not fade, it's only the light that changes
I turn my head one day and you became a photograph
I love you now, for me there are no tomorrows
I will love you more, but never less than this
(CHORUS TWICE)
