

Rufio, Control

If I could, I'd prove you wrong.
And if I could, I'd let you know.

You're controlled by your own design.
Knowing you're so right.
When the sun is gone like there is no home.
Embrace this in your arms.

Patience is gone, but you've been left alone.
The troubles are trapped in your eyes.
You'll see me again.
No time to pretend you're everything or anything right.
You've been wondering when your life begins.
I've seen the face of fear tonight.

Why?
Now take my hand 'cause it seems the way you see is blind.
Tell me why.
Take all that you know inside and leave it behind.

It's time to say goodbye to all you fall for.
It's time to say goodbye an angel bound to fly.

Embrace this in your arms'
