

Rufio, Follow Me

You're all I see these days
But you're so far away
This dream is never ending, you're falling through my broken mind.
I've been caught up this time Finally show wings of passion these shattered eyes.
It's broken over the thought of leaving you
But I must go.

Inside my heart
I'm making, spend time on Others faking
you've stolen my heart and trapped my mind.
And giving in to you, I'm lost again I see there is no difference
We're still alone

(chorus)
So, come home with me tonight.
We'll lay til dark turns light.
Can't find this feeling in myself
I've lost the guts
The wave, you're gone
silence, leave us
The wave, you're gone
follow me home.

Something strange in me, I feel the same for you, but there is no difference
we're still alone.
There is no need
in crying
There is no need
in dying
It makes no difference
we're still alone

(chorus)
So, come home with me tonight.
We'll lay til dark turns light.
Can't find this feeling in myself
I've lost the guts
The wave, you're gone
silence, leave us
The wave, you're gone
follow me home.

So, come home with me tonight.
We'll lay til dark turns light.
Can't find this feeling in myself
I've lost the guts
The wave you're gone
silence leave us
The wave you're gone
follow me home.

The wave you're gone
silence leave us
You may, if you're gone.
