

Rufio, Life Songs

It's been so long, and I still see you crying
How long? And I wish I could
Show all the things you've taught me
So much, I owe you too much

So please, don't sit and watch the rain fall down
So get back, get back,
And try to holding on what you're used to
You see? You waited for a life from me
So get back, get back,
And try to do it all that you wanted

Just like father's side, you work hard to help me
How hard? And I'm finding out
It's the best advice you gave me
Life songs, I owe you our songs

So please, don't sit and watch the rain fall down
So get back, get back,
And try to holding on what you're used to
You see? You waited for a life from me
So get back, get back,
And try to do it all that you wanted

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

So please, don't sit and watch the rain fall down
So get back, get back,
And try to holding on what you're used to
You see? You waited for a life from me
So get back, get back,
And try to do it all that you wanted

So get up, get up, enough!
I know that you're wrong, wrong
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
