

Rufio, Never Learn

Wait till you open that thought
Tear up that page in your mind
Restraint is a purchase of lust
Draining how you run your mouth dry

Let go, let go, let go

You can save yourself the doubt
Some people never learn
To shut their mouth's
You need the world to know
They're wrong, we're wrong
Your blind you'll need to mind
When you're impressed by god
You'll never learn

Listen understand, understand
Reason never came to your head
Poison all the words you rechecked
Flexing to your last fucking breath

Let go, let go, let go

You can save yourself the doubt
Some people never learn
To shut there mouth's
You need the world to know
They're wrong, we're wrong
Your blind you'll need to mind
When you're impressed by god
You'll never learn

Fake people who open that door

You can save yourself the doubt
Some people never learn
To shut their mouth's
You need the world to know
They're wrong, we're wrong
Your blind you'll need to mind
When you're impressed by god
You'll never learn

Fake people who open that door
