

Rufio, Selfishness

Hardened up to everyone, emotions all dead.
Face first, in the mud, a lost cause upside down.

Your selfishness is wearing thin.
Your selfishness is wearing thin.

Alone and strong, not giving in,
to selfishness, to anyone.
If anything turns inside out,
look through the cloudiness in your mind.

Turning anger to your friends, blaming things on them.
Breaking rules of promises, blaming faces...undone.

Hardened up to everyone, emotions all dead
Face first in the mud, a lost cause upside down.

Your selfishness is wearing thin.
Your selfishness is wearing thin.

Alone and strong, not giving in,
to selfishness, to anyone.
If anything turns inside out,
look through the cloudiness in your mind.
In Your Mind.

Why don't you look behind those days they're gone.
See through the shadows of these days.
One darkened day turned blue, the light shown through.
The light shown, the light shown through.
