

Rumbleseat, Restless (demo)

restless, still hear singing in the distance and its getting to me, so don't bring it up waiting for the message to keep moving cause i'm dying here in the lock groove again is this the wrong way to go looking for a sign to get off this road cause someone once told me if there's a road to happiness i must have passed it long ago whirlwind, yeah i'm back here in that fight again staying on my knees
just because i'm falling
i'm not giving up
you're gonna have to break me, and i know you can so i guess you had to show things that i regret just to bring the cold cause i can't take a hint maybe i belong alone i don't know where to go whirlwind, yeah i'm back in that fight again
and i know you can
and i know you can
waiting, for that message to keep moving cause i'm dying here in the lock groove again
whirlwind, yeah i'm back in that fight again
