

Run-D.M.C., It's Over

(Jermaine Dupri)

uh huh

ah hah

see when y'all heard that all I'm doin is laughin' at all y'all niggers that been frontin' on my man's in there man, these niggers started this shit man

(Run)

When it come to the show that I rock and the flow that I drop y'all know Run kills the mic can't forget about the olds that I got and the rolls in the spot ya'll know I'm still the right how ya gonna take an old song been around so long so so def done made it tight done went from a DJ to an MC to the R-E-V like overnight everybody lookin' players get shook when Rev Run walk up in the spot even all the crooks that be livin' out in Brooklyn just can't help but point a lot everywhere I go now people say "oh wow"
cause they know how I get it It don't matter if it's motown all the way to your town you can't slow down my hits

(Jermaine Dupri)

can't slow it down man think about this from 1983 to 2000, its 2001 and these niggas are still on the run y'all niggas just crazy ya'll out here tryin' to front like they ain't the reason nigga went and bought a pair of shell toes the f*ck is wrong with y'all

(Run)

People wanna hurt Rev Run say cuz I got dough that I must be a type of fraud but you know that the thing that's funny if God made money then how rich is the Lord went and got JD , made me crazy play me up in the club got a brand new mercedes for my lady But see me I'm on Dubs to a Bentley and all that come out the garage on the side of a grand prestigious home Y'all ask if I'm blessed, by God player what you thought, what Rev you see on gotta make these dollars, comin outta Hollis got my collar on too, I got the rhyme and the beat and the vibe in the street and now the rest is on you

(Jermaine Dupri)

the rest is on me man let me let y'all know somethin' the first rap group to get on MTV heard heavy ya heard me and then they go turn around and resurrect Aerosmith like you know what I mean, there ain't none of that, know what I'm sayin and if it weren't for these cats man y'all wouldn't know nothin' about no LL Cool J or Beastie Boys you know what I mean and this comin' from me I'm lookin at it man since I've was 13 years old, now I been watchin these cats man I aint no old nigga, but I know nigga ya heard me ya know what I'm sayin', so stop all that frontin' man stop all your frontin' ya heard me ya hear

(Run)

Forget the hits that I made or the gig that I played if ya had love back in the day just raised up my kicks and then changed what I spit and returned as the Run y'all love today I picked the mic back up, came right back up to the top where I'm supposed to be (JD: supposed to be) and when the track light up y'all could back right up y'all playa's too close to me

(Jermaine Dupri)

You know what I used to like? the way my man used to come up on stage and grab the mic or just throw the damn stand across the stage man then he used to tell his man like "Yo D, come right here in the middle of the stage, grab yo dick and say what you gotta say" and you know what D used to say he used to say
"Party people, your dreams have now been fulfilled, get out your seats and let's get ill that's right y'all, we not just rough, we more than tough" and when it comes to shit like this hah we got enough know what I mean? you know who the f*ck I am you know my name, you know my game its So So Def, Run DMC
Bioch
